

How to understand your credit rating (Feb 15)

Presented by James Clark, Financial Services Officer, Vancity

You have the entrepreneurial spirit to start a successful business, however you have no savings, or have struggled with your personal finances. How will this impact your ability to acquire start-up funds for your business? Come and find out as we answer all your questions about credit history and ratings.

In this seminar, participants will:

1. Learn about credit history and why it is important
2. Develop an action list to improve your own credit rating
3. Commit to contacting Equifax to sign up for notices when there has been a change to your Credit Report

This seminar is for anyone who doesn't know what their credit rating is and is considering applying for a loan.
