

The first 90 days: stories from the trenches (Mar 1)

Hosted by: Danella Parks, Community Investment Manager & Graham Boulding, Financial Services Officer

Featuring Current Vancity Members!

Either you're planning on starting operations soon or you've just started your business plan, what are you forgetting? What challenges might surprise you? Preparation and research are crucial, but nothing can replace firsthand experience and advice. Join an open discussion with experienced entrepreneurs. Hear what they did to be successful and what they'd do differently. In this seminar participants will:

1. Discuss challenges and opportunities from those who've been there before.
2. Develop the skills to notice and deal with the unexpected
3. Appreciate why the planning phase is so important!

Regardless of the stage of your business, this seminar will help you prepare for the unexpected.
